How I Generated Data

I got details of law conferences from waset.org and wrote json files to store the conference details. I saved the json files in the assets folder and also added a folder of images to the folder. I also stored the image paths in the json files.
I created data classes for each of the json files and converted them to string using BufferedReader and StringBuilder class. I then added the string items into recyclerViews.